

Bin Lift Assist

Lighten the Load: How Bin Lift Assist Helps Passengers and Crew

Our Delta-designed Boeing 767 and 777 bin lift assist technology was created to help your passengers and flight crew. By combining two new generation electro-mechanical gas charged lift assist units and a gas charged spring, we are able to reduce the force needed to close overhead bucket bins by approximately one half. This innovation is uniquely created with ease and support in mind.

LEARN MORE

Contact a Delta Flight Products Sales Representative at mroservicessales@delta.com to learn more.

Key Features:

- > REDUCES CLOSING FORCE
By approximately one half
- > CAN BE ADAPTED
To fleet types with bucket-style bins